

General

Professor Annette Boaz

Bio

Prof Annette Boaz is a social scientist with a particular interest in the use of evidence across a range of policy domains. She was part of the ESRC Centre for Evidence Based Policy and Practice and has worked in the UK Department of Health and the Government Office for Science and is a member of the WHO European Advisory Committee on Health Research.

Declaration of Interests

Main Employment

London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine (LSHTM)

Other Remunerated Activities

None.